

Salon Concerts at Broadford – 2017 Series

Concert One

Saturday 22 July at 7.30pm

(please note this special time)

Candle lit Concert

Andrew Byrne – lute

This concert features the music of Sylvius Weiss from the court of Dresden. His music was famous from Moscow to London during his lifetime. His fame is due to only one published piece and his reputation but this concert includes further "secret treasures" from unique manuscript copies that have miraculously survived the pointless ravages of war over centuries. These pieces will be played on an Edlinger style 13 course German Baroque Lute strung entirely in natural gut made by the late great Robert Lundberg.

Concert Two

Sunday 27 August @ 4.00pm

Peter Hagen – harpsichord

Jan Pieterszoon Sweelinck to Bach

Sweelinck, having written purely delightful secular pieces to the seriously contrapuntal, deserves to be known as the father of Northern European keyboard music. He was a major influence upon important composers such as Reincken, Buxtehude Muffat and J.S. Bach. This harpsichord recital explores northern European keyboard music linking the undeservedly little known Sweelinck to J. S. Bach through the so called northern Germanic School.

Concert Three

Sunday 15 October 4.00pm

Jane Downer – baroque oboe

Great Composers for Oboe

Vivaldi, Telemann, Handel

Jane Downer returns to play sonatas by Handel Telemann and Vivaldi as well as works by Bach on baroque oboe. From sublime moments of sheer beauty to fast and furious this concert will delight. This concert, being in part a CD launch, will also include works from her highly acclaimed CD now available on the Chaconne label by Chandos. Accompanied by Peter Hagen on the harpsichord, this concert will help you to come to harmonious joy and peace (harmonische freude).

Salon Concerts at Broadford

Bookings Essential - Limited Seating

On line: <https://www.trybooking.com/OXSI>
OR <https://www.trybooking.com/262088>

By Post: Send cheques made out to "Peter Hagen", PO Box 327 Broadford 3658 with a stamped self-addressed envelope and with your details. There are no door sales.

A plate of 5 pieces (can do gluten free) can also be ordered supplied by "One Red Pantry".

Tickets

Adult	$39
Early bird tickets *	$34
Plate - 5pces	$10.00

Early bird is up to 10 days before concert

Concert	No of Tickets	No of Plates
Concert 1
Concert 2
Concert 3
Concert 4
Subtotal
	Total

Include: Name / Address / Phone / Email

Concert Four

Sunday 12 November 4.00pm

Greg Dikmans – baroque flute
Peter Hagen – harpsichord

“Music For A King” - Quantz, F. Benda, C.P.E. and J.S. Bach and Frederick the Great.

Frederick the Great of Prussia attracted the best artists and musicians in Europe to his court. Part of creating such a cultured court included building an opera house in Berlin within two years of his coming to the throne. As a highly competent flute player he performed the many concertos and sonatas his flute teacher, Quantz, composed for him.

“Music For a King” celebrates a time and place that we now can only imagine. Join us to come closer to this once exquisite reality.

Classical Chamber Music

“Four Concerts to Delight You”

Salon Concerts at Broadford - 2017 Series

Experience chamber music the way it was meant to be - in a smaller venue. Be part of an exclusive company with music lovers limited to around fifty.